Formation of Committee for selection o f P ilgrims to Ka ilas and Mansarovar

881. SHRI PRAMOD MAHA-IAN : Will the Minister of EX TERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) what is the procedure of selecting pilgrims to Kailas and Mansarovar pilgrimages ;

(b) what is the number of persons who had applied and those who were selected during the last three years

(c) whether Government propose to form a Committee on the lines of the Haj Committee in this regard ; and

(d) if so, what are the details thereof; if not, what are the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTER NAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH) : (a) Applica tions for the Kailash and Mansa rovar pilgrims are invited through an advertisement in major national and regional dailies and also over AIR and Doordarshan. Pilgrims are-selected by Government from the applicants through a draw of lots and subject to a medical exami nation to certify the fitness of pil grims for high altitude tracking.

(b) Information is as follows :—

Year	No. of applications received	No . of selected pilgrims
1936	1003 (Approx.)	171
1987. .		194
		202

(c) and (d) No Sir, It is not proposed to establish a committee since the number of pilgrims pro: ceeding on the pilgrimage is not very large in view of the difficulties of terrain and climate in the high altitude areas, the need to ensure safety of pilgrims in these region and the limited facilities presently available in remote areas along the route in India and China which can cater only to a small number of pilgrims.
